

Dharma Based Climate Action

People Rising Together for ReLOVEution

*There always was, and still is a horizon out to sea
beyond where the albatross
of our faded dream
lands on fields of plastic,
the wreckage of our waste
slips down her throat. **

*Where storms in Africa
run their rivers through our soul
leaping like oryx
in the sunset of dying hope spinning down to sludge
and shopping malls
draining the water away*

*Even so.
We rise.
Over and over again.*

*We rise.
Because of this,
Be this.
Be loyal to your true heart.
She will lead the way.*
